OFFICE OF STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP

DATE : May 22, 2017
FROM : CHARLIE A. DAYON, Ph.D.
Chairperson
TO : ALL STUFAP/4PS CONTINUING SCHOLARS AND NEW ENROLLEES
SUBJECT : ENTITLEMENT TO AND AVAILMENT OF 2017 FREE TUITION

Based on the guidelines on the grant of Free Tuition 2017 from CHED – UNIFAST dated April 24, 2017, only the academically-able students are considered for the 2017 Free Tuition. But, those who shall be prioritized are students who are beneficiaries of nationally-funded StuFAP provided they meet the admission and retention policies of the state college. The tuition fee of these students shall be charged to StuFAP on condition that the total annual benefit amount they receive is more than Php 15,000 each. If it is lower than or equal to Php15,000.00, then it shall be charged to the said allocation for the college. Aside from this subsidy, they will still continue to receive their regular StuFAP.

When all StuFAP beneficiaries have been enrolled, the continuing students shall be given slots based on their rank and availability of the Free Tuition funds. These are as follows:

1. Graduating students with one semester remaining regardless of their household per capita income;
2. Graduating students with one academic year remaining regardless of household per capita income;
3. Non-graduating students who are beneficiaries of 4Ps;
4. Non-graduating students who are still included in Listahan 2.0 and ranked according to their estimated per capita household income; and,
5. Non-graduating students who are ranked according to their per capita household income based on the submitted documents for proof of income such as,
 - 5.1. Income Tax Return (ITR);
 - 5.2. BIR Form 2316;
 - 5.3. BIR Certificate of Exemption from Filing of ITR;
 - 5.4. Barangay Certificate of Indigency;
 - 5.5. Certification from DSWD;
 - 5.6. Overseas Filipino Worker (OFW) Certificate;
 - 5.7. Employment Contracts for OFWS; and,
 - 5.8. Other government issued documents.

If there are still remaining Free Tuition funds, new enrollees and returning students shall be given the corresponding slots based on their rank.

For information and guidance.
